pOpera celebrates the extraordinary talents and stories of individuals who have experienced displacement, creating a platform for their voices to be heard and their stories to be shared with a wider audience.

This collaborative effort results in a captivating and powerful opera production that transcends boundaries, inspiring audiences with its heartfelt and authentic portrayal of the refugee experience.

Join us on this remarkable journey of creativity, compassion, and artistic expression as we bring together refugees and the wider community to create a truly transformative and inclusive opera experience, right in the heart of Luxembourg's prestigious Philharmonie.

Together, we can weave a tapestry of voices, music, and shared humanity that resonates deeply with all who witness it.
